

HARN MUSEUM NIGHTS PRESENTS:

Voices From

The March

A DRAMATIC READING

Presented by the Samuel Proctor Oral History Program, Voices from the March compiles oral history narratives from the Women's March on Washington as well the experiences of the students who documented those voices.

Written by: UF students and staff at SPOHP

Directed by: Jeffrey Pufahl

Jeffrey Pufahl is a Creative Campus SPOHP Scholar in Residence whose work at the UF is focused on developing theater-based programming that addresses social issues and community health.

The Harn

Thurs. Nov. 9 | 8 PM | Free

UF | Center for Gender, Sexualities, and Women's Studies Research

Center for ARTS IN MEDICINE

COLLEGE OF THE ARTS